

Eco Promotional Products Vendor Declaration Form

Prospective business partners, Eco Promotional Products (EPP) has a unique position in the industry by verifying to the best of our ability the complete supply chain for the products we promote. We feel your company and products offer significant value to our environmentally and socially minded customers.

EPP is a partner to our customers ensuring them we are providing products that have been environmentally and socially sourced. EPP makes a commitment to our customers and ask that you review these seven principles and declare to us, we can depend on your agreement to the following criteria:

1. Business/factories should support and respect the protection of human rights
2. Business/factories do not participate in any forms of forced and compulsory labor
3. Business/factories do not participate in any form of child labor
4. Business/factories do not discriminate in respect to employment and occupation
5. Business/factories support a precautionary approach to environmental challenges
6. Business/factories undertakes initiatives to promote greater environmental responsibility
7. Business/factories encourages the development of environmentally friendly technologies

We would be interested to hear of any other related initiatives supporting your company's position on sustainability.

We kindly request that you review, sign and return your declaration within one week to: Robin Tehrani at robin@ecopromotionsonline.com:

---

Company Name

---

Date

---

Signature

---

Please Print Name & Title

*Inspired by the United Nations Global Compact